ROMANTIC ROAD CLASSIC TOUR

Frankfurt - Würzburg - Rothenburg o.d.T. - Augsburg/Munich - Füssen:

Würzburg

Rothenburg o.d.T.

The coach leaves Frankfurt Main Railway Station (Sector A) at 08.00 hrs. On the motorway, past Aschaffenburg and Wertheim Village, the first part of the journey takes us to Würzburg, the beginning/end of the Romantic Road. Continuing, the coach enters the Tauber Valley, stopping in Bad Mergentheim and Weikersheim. From Bad Mergentheim to Harburg, the coach sticks to the Romantic Road. In the medieval towns of Rothenburg, Feuchtwangen, Dinkelsbühl and Nördlingen, it stops in the town centres, so passengers can enjoy the historical flair of these places from the first moment. In Donauwörth, the former Imperial Road (Alte Reichsstrasse) is an impressive sight before crossing the Danube. From there, the coach takes the expressway to Augsburg, the founding city of the Romantic Road.

! Passengers for Munich change to the train at Augsburg railway station

Coach passengers continue via Landsberg am Lech and the Pfaffenwinkel district before making a final photo stop at the Wieskirche, to reach Füssen.

Journey along the Romantic Road:

Bad Mergentheim to Nördlingen and from Hohenfurch to Füssen.

In the Tauber Valley, the route runs alongside vineyards, past numerous wine-growing villages, such as Markelsheim, Röttingen and Weikersheim. A glance at the steeply sloping vineyards leaves no doubt that the vines are cultivated using manual methods. The landscape is characteristic and the road very narrow – a region reminiscent of the ‘good old days’, where time seems to have stood still. At Schillingsfürst, the coach crosses the Europe watershed between the rivers Main and Danube and enters the Franconian heights with its numerous fruit trees, which provide the raw material not only for fruit juice but also schnapps. From Schillingsfürst, the River Würnitz runs parallel to the Romantic Road before flowing into the Danube, Central Europe’s second-longest river, at Donauwörth.

Also impressive is the journey from Nördlingen to Harburg, across the Ries Geopark, a crater produced by a meteorite strike millions of years ago and which nowadays counts as one of the most fertile regions of Bavaria.

Journey along the Romantic Road:

Füssen to Peiting/Hohenfurch and from Nördlingen to Weikersheim/Bad Mergentheim

At Donauwörth, the coach crosses the Danube, which rises in the Black Forest and winds its way across Central Europe to the Black Sea. From there, the River Wörnitz runs parallel to the Romantic Road. Particularly attractive is the view from Harburg. Crossing the Nördlinger Ries, you can't help but notice the heavy and fertile soil, the result of a meteorite strike millions of years ago. The potatoes which grow here are famous and are eaten throughout Germany. Dinkelsbühl and Feuchtwangen are surrounded by innumerable ponds, which are used to breed carp, a Franconian speciality when it reaches the dinner table. This is also the home of numerous storks, which nest in the towns and villages along the Romantic Road. On the way to Rothenburg, the coach passes Schillingsfürst, attractively situated in the Franconian Heights Nature Park. In the Tauber Valley, the route is lined with vines bearing the grapes for red and white wine, bottled in its uniquely shaped bottles 'Bocksbeutel', traditionally used in Franconia.
